

KAWAI CONCERT GRAND IS THE CHOICE OF THE TOP PRIZE WINNER AT THE 14TH JOSÉ ITURBI INTERNATIONAL PIANO COMPETITION.

The 1st prize winner, 5th and 6th prize winners of the 14th José Iturbi International Piano Competition chose and played Shigeru Kawai EX. There were three official pianos on the stage: Kawai, Steinway, and Yamaha. 4 out of 12 contestants in the semi-final chose to play KAWAI. In the final, 3 out of 6 selected KAWAI.

The Competition was held from September 10th to 25th, 2004, in the City of Valencia, Spain. Established in 1981 to pay tribute to Mr. José Iturbi, a pianist and composer, the Competition is held every other year. José Iturbi was born in Valencia and studied in Spain and France, making his debut as a concert pianist in the United States. He was later appointed conductor of the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra and the conductor of the Valencia Orchestra.

First prize winner Alexandre Moutouzkine

Results of the 14th José Iturbi International Piano Competition:

First Prize	Alexandre Moutouzkine	Russia	Played Kawai
Second	Jean-Frederic Neuburger	France	Played Other piano
Third	Ingmar Schiwindt	Germany	Played Other piano
Fourth	Karan Panos	Greece	Played Other piano
Fifth	José Enrique Bagaria	Spain	Played Kawai
Sixth	Alessandro Roselletti	Italy	Played Kawai